D. Return of deposits (continued)

(T)

- 2. When service has been provided for 12 consecutive months during which at least ten of the bills have been paid within 15 days after presentation, and service has not been temporarily or permanently discontinued for nonpayment of bills during such period, the utility will automatically refund, as a credit to the customer's account, the deposit and any interest payable under Section E of this rule.
- 3. Should the customer establish credit initially by deposit and subsequently by other means in accordance with Rule No. 6 and then request return the deposit with interest as provided in Section E of this rule.

E. Interest on Deposits

- 1. The Utility will pay simple interest on deposits at the average monthly 90 day commercial paper rate per month for the first 12 consecutive months (or shorter period if service is discontinued after less than 12 months) and for additional time thereafter up to the date of refund; provided, however, that no interest shall accrue (1) after mailing refund or notice that refund is due and payable to the customer at his last known address, and (2) if service is temporarily or permanently discontinued for nonpayment of bills.
- 2. No interest will be paid on deposits made for temporary service.
